PRESS RELEASE | July 27, 2009

Trussway Announces New Chief Financial Officer

Houston, Texas; July 27, 2009 - On behalf of Trussway, Ltd., Jim Thomas, President and COO, announced the selection of Kendall Hoyd, CFA as the company's new Chief Financial Officer. Beginning his career as a financial analyst with the Morrison Knudsen Corporation, Mr. Hoyd progressed into high-level financial management roles with both national and international enterprises where he was responsible for a wide variety of management functions, including financial reporting, strategic planning, performance measurement, and financial structuring. For the past 12 years, Mr. Hoyd has worked primarily within the truss and construction industries, most recently as President of InteFrame Network, an organization designed to integrate structural engineering, component manufacturing and framing into a single source solution for contractors.

Mr. Hoyd is a graduate of Boise State University and is a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA). He is also an active member in the Wood Truss Council of America (WTCA), served as its Board President in 2005, and is the current Chairman of its Investment Committee. Mr. Hoyd is the current President of the Structural Building Components Research Institute (SBCRI).

We are pleased to welcome this newest member of the Trussway executive leadership team. We are confident that his broad base of financial experience and operational expertise, as well as solid reputation, vision and deep understanding of our business will be invaluable as we chart the Trussway course for the future.
